

Nokia 1.4: the tech experts' choice

Nokia 1.4 is highly recommended by tech experts for families who are spending more time at home together.

Trusted, secure, and built to last, the Nokia 1.4 offers quality at an amazing price. Let's find out more.

A screen built for the family

The huge

6.51" HD+ screen

is perfect for watching your favourite movies with your loved ones.

"The screen stretching to an impressive 6.51 inches edge-to-edge, is almost a full inch bigger than its predecessor, and the largest ever to feature on a 1 series Nokia."

- TechRadar

"The Nokia 1.4 packs the largest display you'll find on a 1 series phone thus far."

- Trusted Reviews

Capture special moments

With a

2MP Macro lens,

capture those tiny toes and cute eyelashes of the newborn in your family.

"With a 2MP macro, you'll be able to see what's under your fingernails while waiting to be let into Zoom lessons with the little ones."

- Stuff

Looks good and feels right

Always look stylish holding Nokia 1.4. Choose from these three stunning colours:

Fjord, Dusk, and Charcoal.

"All in all it sounds like a decent phone for the money, offering the basics you need in a package that's attractive and doesn't cost too much. It's available in a lovely Fjord blue, dusk purple or black."

- Pocket-lint

Let the good times last

The two-day 4000 mAh

battery lets your children attend their online classes at a stretch without running out of battery.

"To keep you going all day there's a 4,000mAh battery which offers up to 8.5 hours of video playback/screen time. That means, for the moderate user, it wouldn't be unreasonable to expect two days from it between charges. Maybe even more."

- Pocket-lint

"Further expanding its lineup is the latest Nokia 1.4, which brings a seemingly decent experience without costing an arm and a leg."

- Android Police